

CAMPUS REVISITED V TO BE WEEKEND REFRESHER — APRIL 2 & 3

The fifth annual Campus Revisited will be presented in a new format. Instead of one weekday of classes, says Mary Ann Caffrey '75, chairman, the alumni and staff committee have organized separate weekend sessions.

On Friday afternoon from 1 to 3, in Borserine Centre, faculty members will present seminars covering a variety of topics from gourmet cooking to marriage.

A dinner theatre evening will begin at 5:30 with cocktails and a buffet in the Goppert Theatre Lobby, followed by an explanation of Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" before the play begins at 8:00. All this for $3.50 per person (plus cash bar).

On Saturday the early bird Revisiter will start with Mass at 8 a.m., coffee and doughnuts in Goppert, and registration for two sections of seminars. Ten faculty members' discussions will run the gamut from archeology to adolescents to house plants, from health to charismatic Christianity to consumer rights.

For the registration fee of $1, a Revisiter can attend any or all of these events. The programs are open to the public.

Frolicking in Shakespeare's "Twelfth Night" to be presented by the Avila Actors Laboratory Theatre are Shaun Hyland as Sir Andrew Aguecheek, Martin Merritt as Feste the Clown, and Thad Nugent as Sir Toby Belch. The fast-moving comedy of merry mix-ups will be staged in the Goppert Theatre, March 25 to 27, and April 1 to 3 at 8 p.m. On April 4 there will be a matinee at 2 p.m. For reservations, call 942-8408.

The visiting Director is Dr. Janet Sheeran, who received her Ph.D. in Medieval and Renaissance drama at the University of Nebraska.

One of the experiences of Allied Health Day was watching a Biology class in action. Here, Bob Whitman, Deanna Davidson and Donna Carroll dissect a necturus. (a necturus?)

VISITORS THROG CAMPUS

Inspecting classes at the college and touring local hospitals were two of the high points of the Adventures in Allied Health and Medicine Day held on March 5. 295 students registered for the event sponsored by the Departments of Natural Science and Business. Arrangements for bringing students and faculty of Kansas and Missouri high schools to Avila were made by Cathy Jennewein, Admissions Counselor.

Mrs. Virginia Johnston, Allied Health Coordinator, Dr. Larry Sullivan, Assistant Professor of Chemistry, and Dr. Jerry Miller, Assistant Professor of Economics, gave the visitors an overview of Avila's Allied Health program. Will Chatham, Director of Admissions, discussed financial aid programs.

PSC Launches Drive

On April 19, the President's Scholarship Club will stage the kick-off luncheon at the Kansas City Club for the annual membership drive. The drive, spear-headed by the President's Scholarship Club executive committee, Helm Lillis, Ron Bennett, Bob Reintjes and Ed Thornhill, will extend to May 31.

Dues, $50 annually, are used entirely for tuition grants. This is a worthwhile project—why not join? For more information, call 942-8400.

Medal of Honor To Be Awarded

The Avila Medal of Honor recipients will be named at a dinner theatre party ceremony on April 1 at 6:30 p.m. in the Goppert Theatre.

The Avila Medal is the highest recognition that can be conferred by the college. It goes to a person or persons who exemplify dedication and leadership in their respective fields, and may be given to students, benefactors, friends or distinguished guests.

At the same gathering, seven Avila personnel will be honored for having given ten years of service. They are: Jane Adelsberger, Lila Crandell, Sr. Paul Joseph Koutsoumpas, Antonio Leon, Sr. Virginia May, Sr. Martha Smith and Sr. Ruth Stuckel.

Avila Aids Broadcasters

Avila is coordinating a community survey for the Kansas City Broadcasters Association, to take place between early March and the end of July. According to James H. Erwin, Chairman of the K.C.B.A., "1976 is the year that each Missouri broadcasting station must file an application for the renewal of its license. One of the most important facets of the application is the interviewing of community leaders to ascertain their view of the problems, needs and interests of the community."

Working to set up interview appointments between community leaders and representatives of the K.C.B.A. are Lou Sondern, Public Relations Director, Jan Kremer, Grants Director, and Jan Frey, a special employee.

The 1975-76 Alumni Solicitation Drive which began in December, and runs until June, has as its goal 1500 donors. To date 340 contributors have responded. Many thanks to all of Avila's benefactors.

International Business Dinner guests, Mr. Melford E. Monsees, Director, Richard Muther & Associates, Inc., and Mr. Jack Jonathan, Corporate Director, New Products Development, Hallmark Cards, are welcomed to Avila by Sr. Virginia May, Assistant Professor of French. The dinner, co-sponsored by the International Trade Club and the National Carl Schurz Association, Inc., culminated in a panel discussion on "Foreign Languages and Career Opportunities in International Business." The panelists, representatives of commerce, industry and education in the Kansas City area included the men shown and Mr. Leo A. Moore, President, the Leo Moore Company, panel moderator; Mr. Stephen K. Weber, Administrative Vice President, Oppenheimer Industries; Sr. Paulette Gladis, Chairman of the Business Department, Avila; Mr. Pat Stafford, International Assistant, Prichard International, and Mrs. Doris Ganser-Whate, President, Transim-pex Translation Service.

APRIL IN PARIS TOUR

April in Paris will be a reality for students from three area schools who will depart on April 11 to spend "Spring break" in France. The tour, co-sponsored by the Avila Art Department, under the leadership of Sister Colette Marie Doering, will include persons from Avila, St. Teresa's Academy and from Bishop Hogan High School and is under the auspices of Air France and the Franco-American Committee for Educational Travel.

The high schools, represented by Ms. Mary Martin, managing agent of the tour, are involved in the Avila dual enrollment program in history.

Not to waste a moment of the trip, those who wish it may obtain three credit hours for an in depth study of the city of Paris, including visits to the Louvre, Jeu de Paume, Hotel des Invalides, plus the environs of Versailles and Chartres. There will be free time to pursue individual interests.

Be watching the mails for your special invitation to the Estate Planning seminars on April 19 and May 3.

Who Am S.A.M.?

S.A.M. is currently providing information on preparing income tax returns to students and members of the Avila community. Recently S.A.M. sponsored a workshop on job interview techniques and the art of resume writing, and conducted a business seminar with representatives from the Federal Government and the Small Business Association.

Who is S.A.M.? The Society for the Advancement of Management, a student division of the American Management Association, was organized at Avila in 1974, and has 20 members from the Business and Economics departments. S.A.M.'s purpose is to bridge the gap between classroom theory and the day-to-day business world, to bring students and business men together.

About that income tax information. Call Larry Lewis, Faculty Adviser, at 942-8400, ext 275, or contact Debbie Rogozenski, Jerry Herritt, Paula Wolff or Shelly Zerman.
